

5 WAYS TO TAKE BACK
YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

The Dallas Homeowners League
Presents the 16th Annual Neighborhood Leadership Boot Camp

Saturday July 16th at Dallas City Hall

8:30am—12:00noon

---

Keynote Speaker: Judge Clay Jenkins

- Dallas County Judge Clay Lewis Jenkins began his first term in office on January 1, 2011.
- Clay is a native of Dallas County and spent most of his childhood here before moving to his mother's hometown of Waxahachie after the death of his father.

- His work experience includes serving as an education aide to the late Senator Oscar H. Mauzy; a congressional intern to U.S. Representative Martin Frost; a LBJ intern to the late U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen; and a clerkship with the Texas Supreme Court.
- He is the President of Jenkins & Jenkins, a successful law practice with offices in Dallas and Waxahachie. He, his wife, Chrissy, and their daughter live in Dallas, Texas

Break-out Sessions:

1. Crime Watch
2. Animal Services
3. Parks
4. Branding your Neighborhood
5. Preservation Tools

To early register:

www.dallashomeownersleague.org

